

ITE & Smart Communities: Plans for 2018 and Beyond

A Community of Transportation Professionals

Smart Communities & ITE

- Mission

- Priority initiative area for ITE since 2016

- Goals

- Be a champion for a people-based approach to smart communities.
- Use new and emerging technologies to support livable, prosperous communities.
- Support opportunities for all citizens.

Smart Communities Task Force

- Formed by ITE HQ
- Under Transportation Systems Management & Operations Council
- www.ite.org/smartcommunities

Task Force Activities

- Launched major activities in 2017
- Recent update in June ITE Journal

ITE Podcasts

- Smart Communities Series

- Vik Bhide (Tampa, FL)
- Karina Ricks (Pittsburgh, PA)
- Peter Koonce (Portland, OR)
- Jim Dale (Austin, TX)
- Erin Toop & Howaida Hassan (Edmonton, AB, Canada)
- Betsy Price (Fort Worth, TX)

ITE Quick Bites

- Everything But the Data
- All About the Data
- More than Big Cities
- Social Equity
- Public Health
- Forming Start Teams
- Shared Mobility
- How Does a Community Become “Smart”

ITE Community

- Online Community Page
- Discussions
- Blog Posts
- Resources
- Member Engagement

2018 ITE Annual Meeting Sessions

- Workshop
 - Building Smarter Communities through Better Transportation
- Sessions
 - Equity 101
 - Tools and Applications for Developing Smart Communities
 - Smart Communities Data and Research
 - The Role of Smart Signals and Infrastructure in Smart Communities

Related Efforts

- Public Health Intersection
 - Integrating Health in Transportation: Tools, Partners, and Best Practices (June 14th)
 - Incorporating Transportation and Health Considerations in the Regional Planning Process (July 17th)

IN THE KNOW

Upcoming Activities

- Short Video
- Webinars
- Workshops
- Speakers Bureau
- Section / District Engagement
- Smart Communities Online Resource Center
- Tool to Quantify Benefits / Costs

Get Involved!

- Join the Community
- Follow #SmartCommunities and contribute
- Volunteer!

Thanks!

Beverly Kuhn, Texas A&M Transportation Institute

Smart Communities Task Force

b-kuhn@tamu.edu

979-862-3558