Western District Annual Meeting
Transfer of Copyright Agreement

The ITE Western District wants to thank you for submitting your paper for publication. Please read the following statement and fill out the information below.

I agree to present my paper and allow the ITE Western District to publish/re-publish my material in the ITE Western District Annual Meeting compendium, in WesternITE newsletter, WesternITE web site and/or all other ITE Western District derivative works by virtue of transfer of copyright. I understand that others may utilize my work for purposes that the ITE Western District has no control of and that publishing my paper does not constitute agreement with, support or endorsement of this work by the ITE Western District. The ITE Western District simply publishes/uses your work to share it with others in the profession. As author(s) of this work, I (we) warrant that I am (we are) the sole owner(s) of all rights in the work; that the work is original with me (us); that any material not original from me (us) and appearing in the work appears with the proper referencing/notations of the original owner of such work. I (we) also warrant that the work does not violate or infringe upon any existing copyright and that I (we) have full power to enter into this agreement. I (we) agree to indemnify the ITE Western District for all damages and legal fees incurred by the ITE Western District for any copyright infringement claims that arise due to the publication of this work. All authors, or in the case of a "work made for hire" the employer, must sign this agreement prior to publication of the work by the ITE Western District (use additional sheets if necessary).
